VERY REV. WILLIAM L. KELEHER, S.J.

Coming at the end of the year, I shall make this a report to the Alumni of the standing of the College. It represents a summation of the reports I have made before sectional clubs and classes during the last few months.

The student body in our undergraduate departments is up to 3450 with an expected enrollment of 4000 in the Fall. Our faculty of laymen will increase proportionately to supplement the work of our Jesuit Fathers.

To meet the increased operating costs in faculty salaries, general maintenance and administration, we have found it necessary to increase the tuition in the undergraduate departments to $350.00 per year. Even with this increased revenue, it will not be possible to carry on our program of expansion were it not for the generous extra work of the Jesuit Faculty. As is true in all colleges, tuitions do not cover the cost of education. We have never enjoyed a large foundation so we must depend on the living foundation of a generous, self-sacrificing group of Jesuit Fathers to carry out our program.

From our experience this year we share the views of most other colleges with regard to the returned Veteran. He is a "grade conscious," earnest, eager student. He is slow to enter extracurriculum activities but that situation is gradually disappearing.

Our new buildings offer greater facilities for extra curriculum activities. The new Auditorium building, with a seating capacity of 1200, provides a common meeting place, suitable for our best gatherings. The old Museum has been rearranged to serve as a classroom building and the headquarters for many of the extra curriculum activities. The temporary dormitories and the classroom building, erected a year ago, have fulfilled their purpose well. The latest addition, another classroom building, will soon be under construction. Our new cafeteria arrangement for boarder and day-student is something of which we can be proud.

Now, after a lapse of twenty years, we shall build again—on a permanent basis. The College of Business Administration is started, and will be a worthy addition to the campus. To allay the fears of some of our Alumni, let me assure you all that the development of a business curriculum does not mean that we are getting away from old ideals and traditions. Built around the basic courses in Religion and Philosophy, the curriculum enhances the traditional cultural courses in English, History, Mathematics and Languages, and adds in due proportion special business fields. Opened in 1938, the College of Business Administration has developed strongly and today takes its stand with the finest schools of its type. Suitable quarters for the school will guarantee greater lasting success.

Alumni Day will present an opportunity to view the latest developments at the Heights. I sincerely trust that we shall have the happiness of welcoming back, on June 9, the greatest Alumni group ever to assemble. Your committee has arranged an attractive program and I know you will enjoy the reunion. I shall look forward to seeing you then.

ON THE HEIGHTS

71st COMMENCEMENT

On Thursday, June 12, at 4 P.M. the 71st Commencement Exercises will take place at the Heights. His Excellency, Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, will preside.

Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S.J., president of the College, will confer 427 degrees upon candidates from the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business Administration, Graduate School, Law School, School of Social Work and the Intown School.

Seniors from the College and the Business School will observe Class Day on Tuesday, June 10, when the Ivy Oration will be delivered.

R. O. T. C. UNIT

College authorities have received official confirmation from the War Department that an Army R. O. T. C. field artillery unit will be organized at the Heights in September.

For a short time from the Fall of 1918 to September, 1919, an R. O. T. C. unit was in existence. It followed the Students' Army Training Corps which appeared during World War I. In World War II 500 soldiers (not B. C. students) studied at the College under the Army Specialized Training Program. Military training was in effect between 1870-1884. The students' units were known as the Foster Cadets.

TUITION

Beginning in September tuition in the undergraduate departments will be $350.00 instead of $300.00.

The decision of the College authorities to raise the tuition has been made only after an extended survey of the financial situation. To meet the regular increased operating expenses and to allow for an increase in salaries, it has been found necessary to take this step.

This marks another forward step in the reorganization of the College, following only a few months after the establishment of the Insurance and Retirement plan for members of the faculty.

RECREATION HALL

Added to the row of temporary buildings on Freshman Field is the recreation hall which was completed in May. The new two story building in May. The new two story building was originally used as a recreation center on Gallup's Island during the War.

The auditorium has a seating capacity of 1200.

PROFESSOR ZAGER

Harold Zager, professor in the Mathematics department, completed 25 years this month as a member of the Faculty.

A dinner in his honor was held to observe the occasion. Dr. Frederick E. White, Physics Department, was toastmaster. Guests included Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S.J., Rev. Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., Rev. George A. O'Donnell, S.J., Rev. John P. Foley, S.J., Rev. Patrick H. Collins, S.J., Rev. John A. Tobin, S.J., Rev. James W. Ring, S.J., Rev. James J. Devlin, S.J., Rev. Anthony J. Eiardi, S.J.

Phi Rho Alpha sponsored the dinner.

Dr. C. Joseph Delaney, '23, was re-elected president. Other officers chosen were: Arthur J. O'Brien, '32, vice-president; William E. Bennett, Jr., '32, treasurer; Bernard Frazier, '41, secretary.

Kelley, '36, treasurer; Daniel J. McFadden, '39, Albert J. Fitzgerald, '31, Richard E. Powers, '25, directors; Rev. George F. Everard, '38, chaplain.

ALUMNI OFFICE MOVES

On June 16 the office of the Alumni Association will no longer be at the College but at 113 State Street, Boston.

The College authorities and the Alumni officers in making this change were motivated by two purposes, (1) to bring the office closer to the Alumni, (2) to effect the beginning of a social center where the Alumni may meet. For years many of the Alumni have been asking for a Boston College Club centrally located in Boston. It is hoped that the modest new quarters on State Street will eventually result in a worthwhile club.

All of the Alumni visiting or working in Boston are invited to inspect the new office. Drop in anytime.

ALUMNI DAY

Plans have been completed for the annual program on Alumni Day, Monday, June 9, by the committee headed by John B. Atkinson, '16. Alumni headquarters for the day will be in the Auditorium Building, one of the temporary structures on Freshman Field near the Science Building.

Sullivan, president; 1932, Edward M. Gallagher, Jr., president; 1937, George E. Curtin, president; 1942, James F. Stanton, president.

NEW AUXILIARY BISHOP

COURTESY BOSTON AMERICAN

BISHOP DESIGNATE WRIGHT

Rt. Rev. John J. Wright, a member of the Class of 1931, has been appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Boston by Pope Pius XII. The solemn ceremonies of consecration will be held at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, on June 30. In addition to his title of Auxiliary Bishop of Boston he will also be titular Bishop of Tegea. He succeeds Most Rev. Louis F. Kelleher, '11, who died last Fall.

Monsignor Wright, who will become the seventh Auxiliary Bishop of Boston, was ordained in 1935 in Rome where he studied for the priesthood. Later he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Returning to Boston he taught Dogmatic Theology at St. John's Seminary. Then he became secretary to Cardinal O'Connell and Archbishop Cushing.

In 1943 Monsignor Wright preached the sermon at the Red Mass which is sponsored by the Law School and is celebrated at the beginning of the judicial year.

One of his brothers is a Boston College graduate, Dr. Richard H. Wright, '40.

In his undergraduate days Monsignor Wright had already earned a reputation as an orator. He became president of the Marquette Debating Society and was the winner of the Gargan Medal. He also was president of the Fulton Debating Society and was the winner of the Fulton Medal. At the Commencement exercises of his class in June, 1931, he was the salutatorian, choosing the subject: "The Magna Charta of the Working Man." Monsignor Wright was also associate editor of the Sub Turri, literary editor of the Heights and assistant editor of the Stylus.

Shea, '19, and Charles W. O'Brien, '33.

SPORTS

NATHANIEL J. HASENFUS, '22

Sports at the Heights are in full swing. In the major sports, teams in baseball, football, and track are out in force. In the minor sports, the golf team has done well, the tennis team is having one of its best seasons, and the dinghymen are out-sailing the class of New England. Such men as John Cochran and Jack Harvey have jumped from the successful hockey club to the fore in golf, while the sailors led by Tom Hanna, Jim Keenan, Quirk, McCarthy, and Burns, have won consistently, defeating among others Tufts, Holy Cross, and Harvard. Alumni in general are not aware of the work of the sailors nor of the Outing Club, that has done exceptionally well on the snow trails of Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

Track has not been too successful. Excellent runners are Tom Greehan, Mat Malloy, John Sheehan (New England mile champion), Strange, Gil Walker, Taylor, O'Connell, Harrington, King, Dakesian, and a dozen others, including football end Cesario, who looks fast in the century. A double winner in the dual meet with Maine was Carl Parsons, who won both dashes. Only in the field events do the Eagles appear weak, but with the reappearance of the injured Sisti and Morro, more points will be picked up in future meets.

Baseball has been more successful in the early season. Fred Maguire has so many capable pitchers that his quandary is whom to start, for in O'Brien, Quirk, Shellenback, Stuka, Blakeney, Sperlinger, Quinn, Desaulnier, and McManus he has the best college pitching staff in New England. For catchers he has Fitzgibbons, Ed King, Chisholm, and Nugent. Among the infielders are a dozen who have made their names in college ball at the Heights or in fast high school company. Charley Doyle, son of Freddie, is good, as is also "Putto" Murphy. Yurevich, a regular from last year, is benched only because of a sore shoulder. Clasby, Brosnahan, and Lanoue are but a few of the stars who have won positions. A sensational outfielder is Frank O'Sullivan, son of the loyal Bill of 1914. The season started with double victories over Brown (8-6 and 10-4) and Harvard (7-3 and 8-4), and at present writing the team has fallen but once—to Dartmouth 4-2 in an upset. Last year's record of 17-2 seems to be in jeopardy.

All roads will lead to Braves Field in the fall, for the Eagles, as all are aware, meet the best in the land. Denny Myers must be a superman if he expects to win most of the games, but we alumni would far rather see our boys play good football against such giants as St. Mary's, Louisiana State, Tennessee, Kansas State, Clemson, and the like than pile up a 9-0 record over inferior elevens. The freshman rule returns in the fall, nine letter men have graduated, but still 27 "B" wearers will be on hand to carry the ball for the Maroon and Gold. We expect great things from our quarterbacks, Clasby, Stuka, and Burke, men who are magicians in the "T". Niketakis, Spinney, Gould, Cesario, Songin, Bowdring, Ring, and Norden will see much action at end.

All last fall's tackles are back for more service, as are all guards except Darone. Twomey will be missed at center but Kennedy, Kulis, and Chouinard are coming fast. In the backfield Aznavoorian, Benedetto, Cannava, Diminick, Farrell, Hughes, Brennan, Lanoue, Poissant, and Jim Cahill will run at the half back posts, while Morro, Songin, DeRosa, Palladino, and Boverini will be in there fighting for positions at full.

The coaching will be excellent, for Myers has added two Eagle grid stars, Dave Lucey, whose record as coach has been spectacular; and Bob Mangene, who has taken on splendidly. Sarno is again at the helm, and during spring practice Repko gave yeoman service.

VARSITY CLUB

Members of the Varsity Club attended a dinner at the Hotel Lenox on May 15. The dinner was for lettermen in baseball, hockey, basketball and track. James P. "Barney" Curtin, '32, served as chairman, while Honorable John J. Connolly, '30, acted as toastmaster. Jim Heggie, '32, is the president of the club.

Speakers included Rev. Maurice V. Dullea, S.J., Ed Mallowney, '26, and Bill Cashin, '18.

Coaches present were: Fred Maguire, Al McClellan, John Kelley and Denny Myers.

Serving on the committee were: John Killelea, '45; John Keohane, '14; John Convery, '30; Warren McGuirk, '29; Bill Gilligan, '40; Owen Dooley, '28; Bob Simmons, '19; Tom Gemelli, '28; Jim Byrnes; Dan McFadden, '39; Bill Ohrenberger, '27; Paul Dailey and Neal Holland, '34.

The Class of 1911 held its first Reunion and Dinner since the War on Wednesday, April 9. Twenty-two of the remaining thirty-two members attended, a record which will be hard to beat. The dinner was held in the Sky-Room at the Hotel Puritan.

Two of the Class, George Leonard and Leo Noonan, a member of the New York Legislature, came on from New York. Dr. Ed Cummings, Washington, intended to come, but the day before had to cancel the trip.

Among the clergy present were the Reverends Joe and Dan Burke, Frank Cummings, John Churchward, Al Finn, Tom Flynn and Ed Hartigan. Father Low, S.J., of the Class and of the College faculty expressed the regrets of Father Rector who was expected to pay a short social visit.

The following members of the teaching profession were present: Miah Falvey, Fred Dunphy, Vin Greene, John Mahoney, John McEleney, Ed McDonough and Walter Winston.

The business and political world was represented by Jim Cotter, Larry Kiely, Pat McDonald and Senator Mike Flanagan from Lawrence.

Unable to be present were Dr. John Downing and Fathers Tim Sheehan and Con Reardon.

Plans were made to have a Memorial Mass offered at the College for the deceased members of the Class, twelve in number, in November, and to have another Reunion some Friday evening in the same month before one of the big football games.

George Leonard is the architect for the interior work on the new Bonwit Teller store to be located in the Back Bay.

Senator Mike Flanagan is on the important Legal Affairs Committee of the Massachusetts Legislature. Being president of his own steel company doesn't prevent Pat McDonald from neglecting his charitable hobbies. Not only is he interested in St. Mary's Infant Asylum but he is also head of the Saint Vincent de Paul Society of Saint Aidan's, Brookline.

Father Frank Low, S.J., is doing his share for the Building Fund. His honorariums from speaking engagements are credited to 1911. It is with regret that we note the passing of Father Leo Cull, O.P., who died last Fall after a long illness.

JOHN S. KEOHANE

Congratulations to Father Fred Deasy on his promotion to the pastorate of St. Joseph's in Wakefield.

Bill O'Sullivan's boy, Frank, who has already shown himself to be a terrific hitter, is playing a prominent part in the B. C. Baseball victories. He has become a big brother to Frankie Keohane, who travels with the team as bat-boy.

The family of Father Jim Kelly, S.J., (Business School) received the St. Ignatius Parish award for having the largest number of religious vocations in one family. Father Jim has three sisters in the convent.

We were pleased to see Father Joe Busam, S.J., (Biology Professor at H.C.) at the K. C. State Council Dinner. He sends his best wishes to the class.

The class has made a good showing in the B. C. Building Fund. Some, however, remain to be heard from. Please consider this now and send in your check or pledge now so the class may be in the forefront when the results are announced at the Alumni Banquet in June.

dear jack:

old age is creeping up on the forty thieves and the fact we are now twenty-seven years out was very forcibly brought home to eddie higgins the genial manager of schraffts little building store who did such a swell job of contacting the gang on the building fund drive when on successive 'phone calls he found three members of the class in the hospital and one house bound with pneumonia and we all join in wishing a speedy return to health to father russ haley hospitalized since december and to john mcmorrow and tom luby and then to ed keller who found out that an automobile is tougher than a leg when you bump them together and now we turn to that growing organization of sons and daughters of the class and we note that the engagement has been announced of joan scanlan daughter of our tom to paul lane an ex g.i. and a student at b.c. law and last winter saw the wedding of virginia kane daughter of ever faithful louie to john crosby of dorchester and ralph wellings tells us that his daughter agnes won a scholarship to the katherine gibbs school against some very tough competition and speaking of schools we noted the appointment of bob o'connell to the headmaster job at the samuel adams school but before we forget it we must tell you that father dan flynn refuted the theory that elbows are only hurt by bending them at class banquets when he fell on returning from a duty call to the rectory at south boston and fractured both elbows but he is now back on the job and as a last note we have to tell you that the rumor that our joe white was out helping to coach the quarterbacks at the university of san francisco was absolutely false as he was merely on school business on his recent trip to the coast

i thank you

The sympathy of the class is extended to the family of Dr. Bill O'Halloran, our classmate who recently passed away. May his soul rest in peace.

FRANCIS L. FORD

☛ The time is running short for all who wish to be listed with the class for contributions to the Building Fund. June is the deadline for contributions and pledges on the first lap of the great project. Our class started off with a bang, but has slowed down in the meantime, and many worthies have yet to be heard from. Make a special effort to keep us near the top with your immediate response.

Our annual banquet was held on February 5 at the Parker House with about two dozen present. After an excellent dinner, president John Flavin offered the welcoming address. Father Patrick Collins, S.J., then told of conditions at the Heights in regard to student registration and the sensational growth of the enrollment. Father Bill Carty told of his experiences as chaplain, and Fathers Ed. Croke and Harold McDermott were our other clergy speakers.

The nominating committee brought in the following officers for the coming year: President, Walter (Tony) Comerford; Vice-president, Dick Rockett; Secretary, Gerry Coughlin; Treasurer, Ed. Dullea; Scriptor, Frank Ford.

President Comerford then took over the duties of chairman for the rest of the evening which was replete with impromptu speeches by all present.

The twenty-fifth consecutive Laetare Sunday Communion Breakfast of the class was held at the Heights, March 16. It was the second father and sons' gathering and brought out an attendance of sixty.

Mass was celebrated in the chapel by Father Patrick Collins, S.J., and was offered for the souls of our departed classmates. After the Mass, breakfast was served in the Commander Shea Memorial Room of the Tower Building.

President Walter Comerford took over as chairman after the breakfast and introduced Father Stephen Mulcahy, S.J., dean of the Arts and Sciences School, who spoke for Father Rector who could not be present. Father Mulcahy outlined the rapid growth of the college, appealed for greater energy among the members of the class in the building drive, and suggested that the class interest itself in awarding an annual prize to some deserving student in the form of a "Laetare Medal." Father Maurice Dullea, S.J., then spoke of the athletic situation at the Heights, and was followed by Father Collins who praised the "Father and Son" idea and hoped that all the off-spring present would eventually trek to the Gothic Towers.

George Olesen, acting as chairman of the entertainment committee, then took over and had several numbers from our senior minstrel show renewed for the youngsters present. Even several of the sons came through with songs, and everybody joined in the community singing.

Ed Garrity, with his six stalwart sons present, won the attendance honors. The oldest son present was Walter Mayo, Jr., 21, and the youngest, Billy Rockett, 4, son of our vice-president, Dick Rockett.

Myles McSweeney, night city editor of the Boston Daily Record, was in charge of photography and was responsible for the excellent publicity received subsequently in the Boston papers.

In addition to those already mentioned the following were present: Joe Sweeney, Myles Finnegan, Dr. Len Morrissey, Ben Daly, Jim Daly, Beaven McGady, Gerry Coughlin, Owen Gallagher, Joe Crane, Henry Supple, Matt Butler, Dr. Phil McGovern, Ed. Dullea, "Gitch" Gormley, Frank Reynolds, Cece McGoldrick, Con O'Connell, Joe Comber, Walter Dimmock, and Frank Ford. Glad to see that Gaynor Wellings, former president of the Alumni Association, is able to be out again after his long siege of illness.

Frank Hickey has severed his connections with the banking business to become vice-president of the Coyne Engineering School of Boston.

Ed Garrity took his annual jaunt to Pinehurst, N. C., to get in a few rounds of golf this spring.

Our ever-alert Pinkerton employee has turned up classmate George Drown who promises to be at our next gathering. George is living on Brainerd Road, Allston.

Frank Reynolds, teacher and coach of hockey at Roslindale High School, saw his pucksters through to the District Championship in that sport this winter.

Worthwhile suggestion for Alumni Day in June: A table or two at which to plan for our 25th graduation celebration.

Congratulations to our vice-president, Dick Rockett, who passed the Bar Examinations last December. And more congratulations to Dr. Phil McGovern of Cambridge, a stalwart 1923 man, who was appointed a Diplomae of the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology recently. Dr. McGovern was graduated from Tufts Medical School in 1927 and at present is visiting surgeon for obstetrics at the Boston City Hospital, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, and Cambridge City Hospital. He is also instructor in operative obstetrics at Tufts Medical School.

Dr. McGovern is the father of three children—Shelia and Arthur, twins, and Philip, Jr. A very busy individual, Phil relaxes during the summer at his home on Point Shirley, Winthrop.

Francis J. Galligan is an attorney connected with the Bureau of Internal Revenue. He is also an instructor in that department. According to well informed sources Frank is to be married soon. One less bachelor in the ranks of '24.

Louis Moisan wrote in recently from LaMesa, California, where he is a contractor and builder. He plans to make a trip to Boston in 1948.

Query:—How is B.C. ever going to have a suitable gymnasium, if the older alumni do not respond better to the drive? The faculty is sponsoring the Classroom Building, and the Dormitory will be self-supporting. Only 23% of our class have made a pledge or contribution of any kind (less than 50 out of 176 whose pictures are in the Year Book of 1925). The recent classes, in spite of the effect of war service on their income, are responding much better than we. Let's do our share by at least representing a majority of the class among the contributors. Send a pledge now.

Bert Ward's Orchestra is in business again, playing at B. C. and other dances. Bert is still Clerk of the Stoughton Court however, during the daylight hours.

Fred Metcalfe is teaching at Milford High School.

We cannot locate Bernard Burns, Charlie Day and Ed Hawley. Also has anyone heard from or about Eddie Dolan who has been in Rochester, N. Y., for about twenty years?

Mail to Hen Fairbanks must be addressed to Lt. Commander Henry Fairbanks at Corpus Christi, Texas. And Captain Tom Herlihy, USN, is stationed at the Naval Repair Base, New Orleans, La.

Working for the Building Fund it has been interesting to talk to former classmates Father Joseph Mantle of St. Theresa's, West Roxbury, Fred Curley, George Burke, and Tom Hegarty. And Ray Scott, doing the same work, had a pleasant chat with Herb Eveleth.

Talked long distance with Tom Walsh who did USO work during the war and is now teaching at Deering High School, Portland, Maine.

After considerable prodding I learned from Father Paul Rock that he was in the Okinawa campaign. Will never forget the Naha-Shuri line of the Japs. He won the Bronze Star medal. After the Jap defeat Father Paul spent three months in Korea and then flew all the way home from Tokyo. He is now at the Sacred Heart Church in Malden.

Art Murray is still living in more or less temporary quarters at his summer home at Hough's Neck until he can get his home built on Centre Street, West Roxbury.

It was great to know Ed Harrison is back in Boston after several years in New York. Living in Islington he is still with a paper container outfit. Promises to be at the Heights on Alumni Day.

Working for the Shawmut Woolen Mills, Stoughton, as chief dyer is Bill O'Heir (formerly Hehir). He got married in December. Is mourning the loss recently of valuable photographic equipment when burglars entered his home.

John Kiley is teaching at B. C. High. He is a member of the school committee in Norwood where John Folan may be found any day in the Town Hall.

Tried to reach Jim Hickey at Williamstown only to learn finally he was in Boston the day I called. We, meaning the able, aggressive and energetic Ted McKeon, Ray Scott and myself, tried to run down Tom Hennessey at Portsmouth, N. H., but he is among the unknown.

John Mulligan is somewhere in New York City.

John McGrath is teaching at Provincetown High at the tip of the Cape.

Father Jim Shaughnessey is stationed at St. Aidan's, Brookline.

See you Alumni Day.

Our Class rates among the first in the Building Fund Drive. Distance is no barrier when it comes to spirit for several contributions have come from those out of state. Will those who have not contributed yet, do it immediately so that we may boost our figure by Alumni Day?

☞ This is our 19th Anniversary as graduates of the College. After seeing 75 members at our February reunion, the Class can be very proud as to the success of its members.

☞ Dear Classmates:

As of April 25, 1947, 175 members of our class, 145 of them graduates, have contributed to the Building Fund. Our average of all gifts to date is $72.85.

If you have not sent in your pledge, please do so now. If you have pledged and now feel you can add to your contribution, kindly forward your supplemental pledge today.

Act now. Don't wait for us to remind you again. Thank you.

Cordially yours,

John J. Mahoney
President

The sympathy of the class is extended to Father Joseph Connell, S.J., on the passing of his mother in April. May she rest in peace.

Attorney William J. LaFay is consul for Venezeula in Boston and in that role took an active part in the recent observance of Pan-American Day here.

Attorney Henry M. Leen rushed the golf season at Wollaston and was sending raking drives down the fairways (occasionally) as early as March 1.

Dr. William F. Flynn, of Milton, is a proud father for the fifth time. A son, Robert Emmet.

Your correspondent is rejoicing in a fourth arrival, a daughter, Natalie. She evens the family score at two boys and two girls.

George Donaldson active as ever in the building fund drive, and with his current survey of the businesses and occupations of members of the Alumni.

John J. Barnwell has settled down on the West Coast and is "public defender" in one of the larger cities there.

J. Lloyd Carnegie, sometime Marine Corps captain, who received the accolade of "class merchant" in the list of "bests" in our Sub Turri, is executive assistant to the president of the Manchester Federal Savings and Loan Association, of Manchester, N. H., one of the largest institutions of its kind in the country. The effervescent Tom Conroy is still in the photography business and has recently added a new lot of equipment to an already awe-inspiring collection of gadgets. His home is at 3 Upland road, Brookline.

Father Justin Durocher is at Saint Agnes' Church, Arlington.

Thomas F. Walsh is still with Lever Brothers, Cambridge.

Dr. Frank McCarthy has his own clinic in Lawrence.

Edward F. Glynn is in the transportation field at the Haymarket Terminal of the Eastern Mass.

Father John T. Cunningham is at St. Mary's, Lynn.

Dr. Frank Sullivan, of Cambridge, is living at 12 Village Lane, Arlington.

Francis D. Mone, footballer of the Cavanaugh days, is living at 149 Main street, North Easton, and has his law office in the Taylor Building, Taunton.

Fr. Timothy P. O'Connell, S.T.D., is at St. William's Hall at Saint John's Seminary, and is in great demand as a speaker at communion breakfasts and other functions. The last time we saw him, his hair was as fiery as it used to be when he sat with your correspondent and Father Joe Mahoney in Mr. (now Father) Frank Anderson's Freshman Greek classes.

Eustace B. Hood, another Footballer, is at the Provident Institution for Savings, and sends word that he will be with us Alumni Day.

Dr. Jim Hennessey now has five youngsters and lives at 153 Cypress street, Brookline.

Dr. Hubert McGuirl, of Warwick, R. I., one of the more successful dentists of that area has this imposing address: Governor Francis Farm, 113 Sweet Fern road, Warwick.

Father James C. Coyne, a chaplain, is stationed in the Salt Lake Lake diocese.

Classmates will be pleased to know that Rex Beach, football and track star who has been ill, is in good health and back at work for the Bird Machine Co. His home is at 275 Central street, Mansfield.

Eddie Wessling is manager of the Brokers' Loan Department of the Second National Bank. Ah, there, Eddie.

John Mungovan is a social worker with the Department of Public Welfare and lives at 81 Sagamore avenue, Quincy.

Father Arthur Morley is on sick leave in Arizona and Father John L. Crowley, who is also ill, would appreciate letters from classmates at his new address, Lawson street, Rockland.

Charles Quincy Adams, the old Glee Club performer, is teaching history at Somerville High School. He has two children.

Father Joe B. O'Brien is at Saint Philip's, Roxbury.

Armand Guide Melargno has gone into business for himself after years with one of the major stove manufacturing companies. He is living at 896 Chalkstone avenue, Providence, R. I.

Joe Cavanagh, who was married recently, is living at 3 Sherwood road, Natick.

The sympathy of the Class is extended to Bill Ryan whose wife died in April.

Jerry Mahoney isn't going to like this, but the close of the academic year seems to be the appropriate time to say that no one in the Class could have accomplished the work on the Fund that Jerry has with the members of 1929. He showed the same persistence, the same initiative and the same refusal to quit under tough going that he has shown since he came as a boy from the South End to become a good back and end for B.C.H.; to take his letter at the Heights despite his lack of weight and a succession of injuries; and to become a successful attorney.

JOHN J. GRANDFIELD

731 Hyde Park Ave., Roslindale 31

 This is my first attempt at writing anything for a B.C. publication since leaving the Heights in 1930. Turning back the pages of time to those glorious years brings back a flood of wonderful memories. It is not very pleasant to be compelled to report that 1930 is not responding in its usual fashion to the Alumni Fund Drive. At present we rank number 16 among the classes, whereas in September, 1946, at the start of the drive we were in sixth position. Let's give our full cooperation to Class Chairman Charlie Murphy so that when our old friend Father Frank Sullivan reads the final results on Alumni Day, the men of 1930 will be able to hold their heads high with the satisfaction of a difficult job well done. Send those contributions or pledges to the Boston College Building Fund, 113 State St., Boston 9, Mass., this very day.

Tom Kelly literally had the roof taken off from over his head by a fire last February. Fortunately nobody was injured, and Tom reports that all the damage done by the fire has been repaired. He and his family are now back at their home after staying with Tom's parents for some time.

William "Moe" Beal, erstwhile public relations man for Governor Tobin, now is devoting his time and talents to the Greater Boston Development Commission in a similar capacity.

Bill Griffin recently was installed as recording secretary of Branch Five, United National Association of Postal Clerks, at ceremonies held in the Copley Plaza in the presence of a large gathering of postal officials and employees. Bill also is editor of the "UNAPOC's" monthly paper.

Lou Carey is serving as Adjutant of the William L. Harris Post, A.L., and recently attended the state convention of the Legion held in Lawrence. Eddie Lennon is a member of the board of directors of the Harris Post, so it is safe to say that everything is under control with Lou and "Spike" on the job.

Paul Mahony (hope I spelled your last name right this time, Paul) was in town recently to officiate as best man at the wedding of Jack Harkins and Miss Catherine Morley of Jamaica Plain. By an odd coincidence Jack Dwyer was in New York the same weekend. When he dropped in at Paul's office, Jack was informed by Paul's secretary that her boss was in Boston. Congratulations are in order for Dr. and Mrs. Bill Sullivan on the arrival of their fourth child and first daughter.

Fred Lyons took the long march down the middle aisle recently at the Sacred Heart Church, Roslindale, with Miss Ramona Desmond, sister of Rev. Gerald Desmond, '33. Father Desmond tied the knot, while the nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph W. Lyons, '27, brother of the groom. Fred and his charming bride will make their home in Milton.

If you make a smooth landing or a perfect takeoff at the Logan International Airport while traveling the airways these days, give a good share of the credit to Henry Lynch. Henry is working in the control tower there and tells me that he gives special care to planes carrying his classmates and other B.C. men.

Ted Hoppe, our movie impressario, recently showed Ted Williams in "Swing King" at Filene's Mens' Store as a feature of a mother and boys program held there. Ted now has a series of full length features suitable for presentation at roadside stands and other outdoor gathering places.

His Honor "Boots" Connelly and the aforementioned Ted have been very busy appearing at Holy Name Societies and other similar organizations. Ted shows a picture called "Boy in Court," while the judge gives a very impressive and eloquent talk on the pitfalls facing the youth of today.

Father Donald A. McGowan recently was elected president of the New England Hospital Association. This is but one of the many honors that have come to "Luke" in his chosen field during the past few years, and we all feel sure that there are many more in store for him.

Fathers Neil Donohue, S.J., and Leo Muldoon, S.J., have returned to Jamaica to continue the great work they are doing there.

A little gathering of the Indoor Social and Athletic Club was held one Saturday night at the home of Prexy Jerry McCarthy in Brockton. The club also held a meeting at the home of Dr. Bill Sullivan in Milton. Among those present at these were Frank Higgins, Jack Dwyer, Joe Whitehead, Frank Bradley, "Red" Hoban, Frank Geary, Tom Kelly and yours truly.

President Jerry McCarthy has plans for several class activities in the making and hopes to see a goodly number of the "boys" at the Heights on Alumni Day.

Father Daniel Taglino is at Saint Anthony's, Revere; Father John Cosgrove, Immaculate Conception Church, Stoughton; Father Joe Gough, St. Anne's, Readville.

Lt. Colonel Jim Walsh, is stationed in Kyoto, Japan. His wife and 11 year old son are with him.

HENRY M. LEEN

15 Bennett Street, Woburn

 On Sunday, April 13th, we had our annual get-together, this time at Jack Gill's Hotel Bostonian.

About fifty members of the Class attended and after an invocation by Father John Doherty, S.J., partook of a very tasty dinner. The post-prandial exercises were very short. Before speaking was allowed, Frank Romeo very effectively put the tap on all those present and thus kept his books in balance. President Tom Crosby gave a report on various items of Class business.

The results of one event should be reported, although it all took place with such sudden swiftness I cannot really say how it happened. It appears we have a new Class President in the person of Ed Connelly. In any event, Tom Crosby received a well-deserved rising vote of thanks for his splendid work of the past four years. And for the record, Al Fitzgerald is the new Secretary.

Observations and incidental intelligence: Tom McCook is now the Superintendent of Schools at Marlboro. He served with the Marine Corps in Air Intelligence and I now find he was but a short distance from me on Okinawa. Father Joe McGrady, looking as trim as ever, is still at B. C. H. on the James. Father Bill Linehan is stationed at St. Agnes' Parish, Arlington. Father Joe Barrett is teaching Chemistry at the College. And speaking of Chemistry, how many can recall "Chick" Evans' graphic description of atomic action and reaction in terms of bricks flying back and forth in a Roxbury gang fight?

The medical profession is always good for a few lines. Saw Dr. Joe Bradley, Dr. Dick Gorman, Dr. Ed Carey, and Dr. John Rattigan at the dinner. Dr. Rattigan has been promoted to Assistant Professor of Medicine at B. U. and very recently acted as moderator on a W. N. A. C. Medical Center Forum. Dr. Frank West has now limited his practice to Ophthalmology and has opened offices on Bay State Road.

Vital Statistics: John and Peg Gill are the proud parents of a baby girl (their fourth daughter and sixth child—which puts John in the Number One Spot.) And Jack Chisholm reports a new son.

R. Felix Doherty married a Woburnite, Miss Eleanor Driscoll, formerly of the Woburn High School Faculty and during the war she was a lieutenant in the Waves.

"Tiger" Jack Young is now with the Detective Branch of the Mass. State Police.

Father John Redding, is the author of a new book, "Scarlet Letter Men." The book has a foreword by His Excellency, Archbishop Cushing.

Phil Boas was expected home in May from Europe where he has been serving in the Army of Occupation.

That about does it save for this thought. If each of us has not contributed to the Alumni Fund Drive—not just an annual stipend—but an amount which represented a sacrifice, then we have not done our share. And we cannot expect the general public to shoulder our obligations. So let's get that Ten Thousand before Alumni Day.

JOHN P. CONNOR

♥ Plans for our 15th reunion are being formulated by chairman Bill Connor. The tentative arrangements are a Communion Breakfast, Sunday, June 8, followed by an outing at Pine Knoll, Wenham, Mass. Each member of the class will be notified by mail when final arrangements are completed.

If anyone needs help at the Roxbury Court House, be sure to look up John Teehan. John has been working at the courthouse since graduating from B. C.

Jim Donohue is doing guidance work for the State in the Child Welfare Department. He is well qualified in handling children after watching his own two youngsters.

Joe Merrick has been retired by the U. S. Army and is convalescing with his wife and two children, Kathy and Joe, Jr. at North Falmouth where he recently purchased a home.

I am in receipt of a note from Pete Sanford stating that he is very much around and active in these parts of the country. Pete is the proud father of four little youngsters who keep him very busy. He complains that between his wife and children he cannot play golf (all day). Incidentally, if you want anything plastered, call Pete as he is a member (in good standing I hope) of the Nelson J. Sanford & Son Co. Plastering Contractors, 77 Summer Street, Boston.

Dr. Andy Spognardi has become quite a golfer. Recently at the Norfolk Country Club (the only Club in the country that produced a four-title champion, Ted Bishop) Andy on the fourth hole got a hole in one. A suggestion to Dr. Spognardi—if you would keep your head down when putting, you could save yourself at least ten strokes and you would be playing par golf.

Captain John B. Connolly is stationed in Japan with the Army. His wife is with him.

Father Daniel R. Foley is stationed at St. Joseph's, Medway; Father Leo McGann at St. Joseph's, Boston; Father William Cooney at the Immaculate Conception, Winchester.

Our annual reunion, held this year at the Hotel Bostonian on April 10, was again a very successful affair. In spite of the large gathering many more had indicated that they would attend but due to unforeseen circumstances could not be present.

moments of silence out of respect to our classmates who were lost in the War. After dinner an election was held with the following results: Tom True, President; Jim Lyons, Vice-President; Paul Schultz retained his post as Treasurer and due to Kev Sullivan's efforts I am still Class Secretary. As chairman of the evening Jim Lyons did a very good job of making arrangements under difficult conditions. Another vote of thanks to Father John McMahon who took care of addressing the mailing cards.

 The class extends its deepest sympathy to the family of Robert B. MacDougall, ex-45, on the occasion of his recent tragic death. Bob, whose engagement to Miss Anne Collins of Jamaica Plain was reported in the last issue, was continuing his studies at Boston College after his return from his war service in the Navy. Bob was killed in an automobile accident on April 27.

 Looking at the Building Fund scoreboard you will note our class occupying an extremely low position (in fact we can't get any lower). To remedy this should be the prime aim of the entire class. The figure is based on the entire 600 men who comprise our original freshman class. If it were based on the graduated 32, the percentage would jump near the top. But rather than apologize for our lowly position, we hope to reach every former member of the class and enlist his aid. With a little class effort there is little doubt that the B. F. scoreboard will show a different story.

The biggest news to reach this column in a long time concerns the proposed wedding of three of our classmates. On June 14th both Bob Leblanc and Willie Murphy will

"I-do" at Lynn and Newton respectively. Bob is marrying his ex-nurse, Miss Mary McGinn at 10:00 A.M., while Willie will wed Miss Kathleen Dowd at 8:00 in the evening. Jim Rowean, at present instructing Freshman Math at the Heights, makes known his plans for a late summer marriage to Miss Frances Weeks, also a nurse. Jim is joined on the faculty at the Heights by Bob LeBlanc and Archie LaFerriere, both instructing in Math and also working for their M.A. Frank Vetere is keeping very busy these days studying at the Grad school and teaching in the Chelsea schools. You'll also find him at Fenway Park on good days.

Tony Bruno, chief Cassandrian, is teaching in the Boston school system. Art Brennan, baseball player of note, is employed as a Passenger Agent with the Northeast Airlines. He also informs us that he recently became a father of a girl. This puts him even with the original class father, Ralph Nash, who has settled with his family in Bristol, R. I., where he is a teacher-coach, and by all reports, going well. Jake Driscoll has changed colors and is doing publicity for the Harvards across the river. His line is sports. Tufts Medical has the privilege of watching two famous classmates go through the rigors of National Boards; the two scalpel-boys being Bill Young and Ernie Damon. Tony Boschetti is also reported to be at Tufts Med. Tom Bilodeau is still recuperating at Rutland and it goes without saying that he'd appreciate a word or two from us all. Jack Fahey assures us that the advent of the ball-point in no way affects his job with Carter's Ink. Jack, by the way, is also contemplating ending his bachelor life but hasn't supplied us with a date yet. "Tex" Dallas is still in Philadelphia, attending Wharton School where he is majoring in Insurance. If a few of us weren't considered poor risks, we'd be glad to oblige the "Tex." A recent wedding at St. Mary's chapel featured our own Joe "April Showers" LaRosa. Bob Gildea is back at Brown pursuing his M.A. in Math. Dick Paris is at the moment a partner with Willie Murphy in the cosmetic distributing business around his home town, Lowell. Jack O'Keefe sends his best to the rest of the class from St. John's Seminary.

To mention all the ex-members who have resumed their studies at the Heights would be a little too much for one reading. We will however, mention a few, and they are: John Nicholson, Ed Black, Bill Sheehan, Don Lynch, Billy Cohan, the two Jack Sheehans (W and C), Phil Kendrick, Joe Dowd, Joe Dee, Herb Phillips, Moe Chisholm, John Best, Bill Pine, Dan Healy, Gene Gaulin, Bob McCloud, Denny Creedon, Tom Mullaney, Bill McCool, Frank Murphy, etc. Others have transferred to other schools including Ed Meehan and Paul Murphy to Tufts. Bob Murphy to Holy Cross. Marty Greely to Harvard. I regret that more names couldn't find their way into this column but there's always another issue.

✍ A year from the date of our graduation finds the members of the class quite well settled in various fields of endeavor. Few changes, if any, have been made in the doings of our small group as mentioned in previous write-ups of this column. With the lack of news at hand, a brief summary of the year's activities of the class is in order. Charlie Keegan is learning merchandising in a retail store; Fred Zappala is finishing up his course at Wharton School of Commerce; Larry Gaughan is at the B. U. School of Social Service; Joe Bornstein is at M. I. T.; Leo Roche and Bill Bannan at B. C. Law School; Ted Calianos is at Mass. State College; and Bill Drane is with the Science Department at the Heights. It might be appropriate here to make mention of the Building Fund. We seem to be sadly lacking in our support of its cause.

Food News Is Big News

A RECENT check of a large metropolitan newspaper revealed that of a total of 483 stories, including sports printed in a single week, 58 referred to food.

Food made 12% of the headlines, including several prominent spots on page 1. More items appeared about food than about any other subjects excepting national and international affairs.

Editors know that food news is big news because it determines the health and well being of every family in the nation and affects the livelihood of millions of Americans engaged in producing and marketing the things we eat.

Every time A&P has found a better way of bringing quality food at less cost to more people, it has been news of deep personal interest to millions of American families, for it has given them better shopping conditions and higher living standards.

By doing the nation's most difficult job of food distribution, the men and women of A&P have, for 87 years been making good news for producers and consumers alike.
